

This Database will look at how course load affects GPA we will also factor in what program the student is in and how difficult the courses they are taking are. The goal is to determine weather or not a lower course load contributes to a higher GPA.